Proposal to Change a Course

NOTE: All gray text boxes must be completed (even if you just put N/A into them), otherwise the committee must consider the form incomplete.

1. Department: Classics

2. Course Number and Title: GREK 372: Readings in Greek Literature: Prose

3. Semester and year when the course change(s) will go into effect: Fall 2010

4. Change(s) Desired (Note: if more than 2 items listed under “Typical changes handled by this form” in Guidelines for Planning to Change a Course, then a New Course form must be completed):

   Change current description in the catalog from: "Comprehensive readings of Plato, readings of the historians Herodotus and Thucydides, or reading of the Greek orators as represented by Lysias, Demosthenes and Isocrates. Prerequisites: Two 200-level Greek courses."

   To: "Selected readings from one or more of the genres of Greek prose literature. Prerequisites: Two 200-level Greek courses."

5. Justification for Change(s):

   1. The change will bring the course description into parallel with GREK 371 (Readings in Greek Literature: Poetry), which reads identical to the proposed change with the substitution of the word "poetry" for "prose".

   2. The current description is misleading, suggesting that the purpose of the course is to provide a wide exposure to the different authors of Greek prose, specifically Plato, Herodotus, Thucydides, or Lysias, Demosthenes, and Isocrates. Rather, the intent of the course is to develop a deeper understanding of the works of a single author or explore the works of a number of authors focused upon a common theme.

6. Is this course to be added to the Degree Requirements of a Major, Minor, Concentration or List of Approved Electives?
   a) □ yes  □ no

   b) If yes, complete the Change Degree Requirements form(s) and list the name(s) of the major, minor, concentration and/or list of approved electives here:

7. Is the course part of any other degree or program? If so, what department? A letter of support will be required from the affected department.
   □ no

(Form was approved by FCC on 9/1/08 and replaces all others.)
