1. Department: English

2. Course Number and Title: ENGL 341

3. Semester and year when the course change(s) will go into effect: Fall 2011

4. Change(s) Desired (Note: if more than 2 items listed under “Typical changes handled by this form” in Guidelines for Planning to Change a Course, then a New Course form must be completed):

   Change title to "Literature of the American South, 1900-Present"
   Replace current description with new description:
   A study of selected texts by and about residents of the U. S. South, with an emphasis on works produced since 1900 that reflect the social and cultural changes the region has experienced over time.

5. Justification for Change(s):

   Title and course description have been modified to update terminology and to reflect course's place in new major.

6. Is this course to be added to the Degree Requirements of a Major, Minor, Concentration or List of Approved Electives?
   a) ☒ yes □ no

   b) If yes, complete the Change Degree Requirements form(s) and list the name(s) of the major, minor, concentration and/or list of approved electives here:
   English 341 already meets requirements for the English major, the English major with a concentration in Creative Writing, and the double major in English and Secondary Education. The only change needed is for the new title to replace the old title in each list.

7. Is the course part of any other degree or program? Please consult the most up to date undergraduate catalog and search for uses of the course to see who should be contacted. If yes, what department/program? Please contact the department chair/program director and request a note or email that they are aware of the proposed change and include that note with the proposal.
   International Studies major, concentration in Comparative Literature
   Comparative Literature Minor
   American Studies Minor
