This course focuses on the ways in which racial and ethnic meanings and hierarchies are produced in and through urban space. We will examine the production of specific urban spaces such as the ghetto, the enclave, the suburb, and the citadel. In addition to looking at each racialized space independently, we will also investigate the linkages among them.

IV. RATIONALE or JUSTIFICATION: If course change or deletion—please provide reasons for change(s) to or deletion of a course. If a new course—briefly address the goals/objectives for the course, how the course supports a major or minor program, etc. For non-major courses address how the course supports the liberal arts tradition and the mission of the institution.

After discussions about curricular reforms and departmental deliberation about the major this course will be deleted. The professor who taught this course has left and our current urban professor has a different focus. We would like to bring in courses that address issues of race and politics in the future.
