Motion to Approve For General Education Status

The Committee on General Education moves that the following courses be approved for General Education Status within the Requirements that they are listed under.

Introduction: This motion would certify each of the following as satisfying the General Education Humanities requirement or the Social Sciences requirement, based on the current Senate approved Approval Criteria for the Humanities requirement and the Approval Criteria for the Social Sciences

MOTION: Approve the following courses for General Education Status under the respective requirements:

HUMANITIES
1. DANC 150 Dance Appreciation
2. THTR 288 Selected Topics in Theatre Literature and Criticism
3. THTR 488 Selected Topics in Theatre I; Literature and Criticism

SOCIAL SCIENCES
1. INTL 120 Economics of Globalization

Rationale: The CGE in consultation with the Faculty Committee for Assessment of Institutional Effectiveness, evaluated these courses and agrees that they meet the Approval Criteria for their respective requirements, and that they are expected to be adequately assessed, based on the student learning outcomes, evidence and assessment rubrics for those requirements.
