Dear Cara,

The Anthropology program is working to make our prerequisites for the 300-level more consistent. To that end we have eliminated most prerequisites, including WGST 200 as a prerequisite to ANTH 346: Anthropology of Gender, which we offer occasionally. We don't anticipate any negative impact on the WGST, but would appreciate a quick email acknowledgement.

Many thanks!

Hi Tracy,

I have received your email. It will certainly help the PH students to open up more opportunities for them to meet their requirements. I just checked and there are no seats remaining for spring 2016. If there are any openings and we have a student who is interested in the class, can we have them contact you to get an override into the class until the prerequisite is officially changed?

Thanks for letting us know!

Have a great day.

Dear Deb and Sue,

Anthropology has decided to drop all prerequisites to ANTH 340: Medical Anthropology. We don’t anticipate any negative impacts for the BA or BS in Public Health. In fact, we hope this helps interdisciplinary majors by giving them easier access to this course. If you don’t mind sending me a quick acknowledgement, I would appreciate it.

Dear Maria,

The ANTH program voted to eliminate ANTH 101 as a prerequisite to the following courses:

ANTH 325: Peoples and Cultures of Latin America
ANTH 328: Aztecs, Maya, and Their Ancestors
ANTH 362: Social and Cultural Change

We don’t anticipate any negative impacts for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (in fact, we anticipate that it will make taking the courses easier for these students), but we do need a quick email from you letting us know this is acceptable.

Many thanks,

Yes, no problem – in fact, as you point out, this will make the courses more accessible to INTL students. Will this be the case for ANTH 326 and ANTH 327 as well?

Dear Doug,

The Anthropology faculty voted to remove ANTH 101 as a prerequisite for ANTH 322: People and Cultures of Africa, ANTH 325: People and Cultures of Latin America, and ABRG 328: Aztecs, Maya, and Their Ancestors. We don’t anticipate any negative impacts for International Studies; if anything, this change should make these courses more accessible.

I apologize for the late notice, but would appreciate a quick email reply verifying that you have seen the changes and don’t anticipate any issues.

Subject: Prerequisite Changes for ANTH courses

Hi Jim,

We are updating our catalog a bit to bring consistency to our prerequisites. We are removing all prereqs from the following:

ANTH 302 Archaeology of North America (3) PR: ANTH 101 or ANTH 202 or instructor permission
ANTH 303 Paleolithic Archaeology (3) PR: ANTH 101 or ANTH 202 or instructor permission
ANTH 304 Rise of Complex Civilization (3) PR: ANTH 101 or ANTH 202 or instructor permission
ANTH 305 Prehistoric Ritual and Art (3) PR: ANTH 101 or a 100-level ARTH course or ANTH 202 or instructor permission
ANTH 309 Special Topics in Archaeology (1-4) PR: ANTH 101 or ANTH 202 or instructor permission
ANTH 318 Theories for the Origin of Agriculture (3) PR: ANTH 101 or instructor permission
ANTH 328 Aztecs, Maya, and Their Ancestors (3) PR: ANTH 101 or ANTH 202 or instructor
ANTH 333 Human Evolution: Human Evolution (3) PR: ANTH 101 or BIOL 102 or GEOL 105 or ANTH 203 or instructor permission
This shouldn’t affect the Archaeology majors (in fact, it may make getting through the major a bit easier), but if you don’t mind shooting me an email to acknowledge the proposed changes, I would appreciate it.

Many thanks!
