

Curriculum and Academic Planning Committee

Minutes of March 16, 1988. Meeting

Present at meeting: Olsen, Pennington, Gentry, Wisetzka, Hines, Asleson, Bowman, and Festa. Guests: C. Hunt and Kubinec

The meeting was called to order at 2:30 pm by Professor Olsen. The following actions were taken by the committee:

- A. The 42 hour major in Theatre was moved (Asleson) and seconded (Bowman). PASSED.
- B. A minor in Theatre was moved (Gentry) and seconded (Bowman). PASSED.
- C. It was moved (Gentry), seconded (Pennington) and passed to approve of the concept of a degree-granting major in Art and Art History.
- D. The English Department self-study and evaluations were discussed with C. Hunt representing the English Department. Items that were discussed by the committee included: Communications as a minor, or possibly, a major; the use of too many part-time faculty; the desirability of a "composition director"; Eng 101 and 102 compared to 090; the future MA program with The Citadel; and low faculty morale from a heavy workload.
- E. The Physics Department self-study and evaluations were discussed with Kubinec representing the Physics Department. Some of the concerns were not enough equipment and low faculty morale over promotion policies. Some curriculum changes are to be considered soon by the committee.

Minutes Re-Typed for Reading Clarity – June 27, 2018

Curriculum and Academic Planning Committee

Minutes of March 16, 1988 Meeting

Present at meeting: Olsen, Pennington, Gentry, Wisotzka, Hines, Asleson, Bowman, and Festa. Guests: C. Hunt and Kubinec.

The meeting was called to order at 2:00 pm by Professor Olsen. The following actions were taken by the committee:

- A. The 42 hour major in Theatre was moved (Asleson) and seconded (Bowman). PASSED.
- B. A minor in Theatre was moved (Gentry) and seconded (Bowman). PASSED.
- C. It was moved (Gentry), seconded (Pennington), and passed to approve of the concept of a degree-granting major in Art and Art History.
- D. The English Department self-study and evaluations were discussed with C. Hunt representing the English Department. Items that were discussed by the committee included: Communications as a minor, or possibly, a major; the use of too many part-time faculty; the desirability of a “composition director”; Eng 101 and 102 compared to 090; the future MA program with The Citadel; and low faculty morale from a heavy workload.
- E. The Physics Department self-study and evaluations were discussed with Kubinec representing the Physics Department. Some of the concerns were not enough equipment and low faculty morale over promotion policies. Some curriculum changes are to be considered soon by the committee.