Les Miserables
by Hugo

Life is not back to normal here or anywhere in the vicinity. This newsletter attempts to be as simple as possible to provide basic news not known to exist elsewhere.

Meetings: October 2-6

October 2: Special Faculty Meeting for Administrative purposes only; no regular faculty business will be conducted. A new regular Faculty Meeting for normal business will be October 16th.

Chairs' Meeting with Academic Affairs scheduled for this date is cancelled.

As of 9-28 at 10:00 am, no other meetings were known to have been scheduled.

Other News

October is still open enrollment for all insurance and other personnel business. This includes all medical coverages, dental coverages, and supplemental disability coverages. The latter, provided by Jefferson Pilot--not by the state--remains available. Remember that new forms must be filled out, even if no changes are requested.

The W. Lloyd Hamm memorial, in lieu of flowers, is set up with the Foundation. Earmark contributions for scholarships, please.

Fall Break is cancelled. Check your revised calendars, copies distributed by Dr. Festa, for new drop dates and final exam schedules. Note that commencement, for the first time on record, may include students who will not have qualified to march. Grades are due on December 17th.

The off-campus Retreat scheduled for October 16-17 is cancelled. An on-campus Retreat is scheduled for October 22-23.

The Board of Trustees will be on campus on October 10-11 for its quarterly meeting. More on that next week.

A Tale of Two Hugos

It was the best of Hugos, it was the worst of Hugos. Everyone has put out so much effort that no comment is necessary except to say thank you. So much destruction and desolation does not warrant further convocation to settle mundane matters.

edited by D.S. Mann,
Speaker of the Faculty